

Include - Components - SSMS and Visual Studio extensions

The SQL Change Automation SSMS and Visual Studio extensions let you:

- easily create migration scripts for database changes
- deploy those migrations to a development database
- validate the migration scripts
- source control the migration scripts so they can be used by team members as well as the build components