

"The operating system returned error 21(The device is not ready.) ..."

This occurs when the network link between the clone and the image is broken. Unfortunately, SQL Server tends to cache the error message on SQL Server 2012R2 and below especially.

SQL Clone monitors for this condition and attempts a fix if necessary. If the problem persists, manually restarting the SQL Server process should always fix this issue.